

RETREAT TYPES

1st NOVEMBER, 2018 – 31st OCTOBER, 2019

Vana is a refuge from the dukkha of everyday life, imbued with wisdom, wellness, learning and giving. Each Vanavasi's journey at Vana is suited to their own distinct needs. Which is why we have introduced three new retreat types for you to choose from, offering varying levels of immersion and activity. From simply resting the mind and body to working on your health to undergoing a long-term physical and spiritual transformation, we have designed our retreats at Vana to help you live your goals and deepest aspirations.

ALL RETREATS AT VANA INCLUDE

- A Retreat Program with yoga, meditation, cuisine lessons, functional fitness, talks, music and more.
- Arrival and departure wellness consultations.
- All cuisine including breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner.
- Private treatments/specialist consultations/sessions based on 1 – 3 wellness weights per night per guest.
- Attire to wear within and outside Vana, footwear, summer and winter accessories.
- Airport transfers from Dehradun Airport.
- All taxes included. No service charge or gratuities added. Our team does not expect tips as appreciation for their work.

Private treatments and sessions are valued in wellness weights, mostly between 1 and 2. À la carte wellness weights may be taken while at Vana, if required. Retreat Program activities, free time and personal practice are just as beneficial as wellness treatments.

Please note, certain physical wellness objectives require a minimum duration of retreat as well as a specific Retreat type. These include Weight Management (14 nights | Vana Wellness or Vana Lifestyle), Detox (14 nights | Vana Wellness), Ayurveda Panchakarma (21 nights | Vana Lifestyle).

Retreat prices depend on the type of retreat and room you choose.
